Member BOG'S Message

Dear Aspirants,

The world of management is undergoing an unprecedented transformation. Artificial Intelligence, rapid technological advancements, shifting business models and evolving workplace expectations are redefining the meaning of knowledge, leadership and professional success. As you stand at the threshold of an important career decision, it is natural to have questions: Will the skills I acquire today remain relevant tomorrow? How will I differentiate myself in a world where AI can perform tasks once considered uniquely human? What kind of education will prepare me not just for my first job, but for a lifetime of learning, adaptation and leadership?

At JSB, we recognize these aspirations and uncertainties. We firmly believe that the answer lies not merely in keeping pace with change, but in developing the ability to anticipate it, embrace it, and lead it.

Over the past few years, JSB has taken conscious and progressive steps to strengthen its academic ecosystem and prepare students for this emerging world. We take pride in offering an intellectually stimulating PGDM curriculum – with very strong industry connects – that aspires to benchmark itself against the best management programs in the country. Through an unwavering emphasis on academic rigor along with contemporary employability skills development, we seek to build strong conceptual foundations, encourage analytical thinking and connect management theories with current business realities. Equally important is our endeavor to foster a vibrant research culture under the guidance of our committed faculty, encouraging curiosity, inquiry, evidence-based decision-making and the ability to question conventional wisdom. These initiatives are aimed at developing professionals who can work effectively with technology while bringing the human intelligence, creativity, ethics and judgment that no algorithm can replace. The results are already visible.

Come with curiosity. Learn with commitment. Graduate with the confidence to lead.

With my very best wishes,

Prof. Rupamanjari Ghosh, Ph.D.

Dean Academics Message

Dear Prospective Students,

At Jaipuria School of Business, our PGDM is designed to help you build a career you can sustain through changing technologies, industries, and responsibilities. That takes sound judgement, the confidence to take on unfamiliar challenges, and the discipline to keep learning.

You will build strong management foundations and apply them through case discussions, business simulations, live projects, and capstone work. As you work with data and AI, you will learn to question evidence, weigh trade-offs, and explain the reasoning behind your decisions. Through industry interactions and international immersion, you will explore how managers approach similar problems in different contexts.

Holistic development takes shape in the responsibilities you accept. In student-led clubs and social impact projects, you will practise listening, working with people whose perspectives differ from yours, and taking responsibility for outcomes. Through RISE (Readiness in Skills for Employability), you will develop workplace competencies, strengthen your communication, articulate what you bring to a team, and prepare for opportunities that fit your strengths and aspirations.

I invite you to join the PGDM batch of 2027–29 and make these two years count. Ask questions that challenge your assumptions, seek feedback that improves your work, and use what you learn to make a lasting contribution to your team, your organisation, and the communities it serves.

Associate Dean's - Student Welfare Message

Choosing a management institution is not merely about selecting a programme or building a career ,it is about finding an environment where you can learn, grow, discover your potential and prepare for the future.

At Jaipuria School of Business, we believe every student has unique aspirations and abilities. Our commitment extends beyond academics to creating a supportive and enriching campus environment where students feel valued, encouraged and empowered.

Student life at JSB offers opportunities to learn and grow through faculty mentoring, student led clubs, committees, cultural activities, sports, community engagement and leadership initiatives. The Student Affairs Council further encourages students to take ownership, collaborate and develop leadership through meaningful responsibilities.

We equally prioritise student well being, recognising that management education is a journey of new experiences and challenges. Through approachable faculty, mentoring and an inclusive campus culture, we strive to nurture confidence, resilience, empathy and a sense of belonging.

I firmly believe that the true value of management education lies not only in the career opportunities it creates but also in the person a student becomes. Knowledge, character, adaptability and the ability to work with people together shape responsible leaders.

To every aspiring student, my message is simple -come with curiosity, participate wholeheartedly, embrace challenges and make the most of every opportunity. Let your journey at JSB be a foundation for lifelong learning, meaningful relationships and responsible leadership.

At Jaipuria School of Business, we are committed to making your journey count academically, professionally and personally.
