Power of Commitment

One trait distinctly visible in the personality of all successful people is COMMITMENT. From Bill Gates to Indra Nooyi and, from Amitabh Bachchan to Sachin Tendulkar, one can easily read the word 'commitment' written on their faces.

A committed individual believes in 1% inspiration and 99% perspiration, as dreaming a lofty goal is only 1% of the task done; the remaining 99% is hard work and commitment to chase the goal successfully.

Success demands total commitment and 100% efforts, be it in writing an examination, while appearing for a job interview or climbing up the career ladder like a mountaineer. To be happy, healthy and wealthy in life, we have to be committed to our goals - personal or professional.
